HEARTS & HOOVES

A grief Support Summer Camp for Youth

JUNE 15 - 19, 2026

Hearts & Hooves is a compassionate, therapeutic summer day camp designed to support children and youth who are navigating grief and loss. Set within the calming, natural environment of Chastain Horse Park, and led by a clinical MSW and PATH Intl. Equine Specialist in Equine Mental Health and learning, this program offers a safe and nurturing space where participants are met exactly where they are in their grief journey.

Through equine-assisted experiences, guided group activities, and age-appropriate reflection, campers are supported as they build emotional awareness, confidence, and connection—without pressure to “fix” or rush the grieving process.

Who This Camp Is For

Hearts & Hooves is designed for youth ages 7 and up who have experienced the death of a significant person or another major life loss and would benefit from a supportive, relational, nature-based therapeutic program.

Program Goals Include:

Building Emotional Regulation Skills: Campers learn to recognize, name, and manage big emotions—such as sadness, anger, anxiety, and confusion—through mindfulness-based interactions with horses and gentle coping tools they can take home.

Strengthening Healthy Attachments: Horses provide honest, non-judgmental feedback, creating opportunities to practice trust, boundaries, communication, and connection in a way that feels safe and grounding.

Increasing Confidence & Self-Efficacy: Ground-based horse activities foster problem-solving, mastery, and a sense of capability—helping youth rediscover confidence during a time when grief can feel overwhelming.

Processing Grief in a Supportive Environment: Facilitated group reflections and equine-assisted activities offer developmentally appropriate, non-threatening ways for children to explore their feelings surrounding loss.

Fostering Peer Support & Community: Campers connect with peers who have experienced similar losses, helping reduce isolation and reminding them they are not alone.

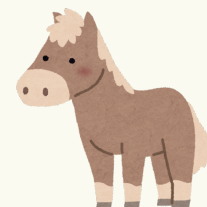

At Hearts & Hooves, grief is honored, emotions are welcomed, and healing is supported—one step, one connection, and one horse at a time.
